This year's theme for Healthy Aging Month is “Stay Fit, Stay Adventurous, Stay Healthy, and Stay Connected.” Aging well means prioritizing not just physical health, but mental, psychosocial, and spiritual health as well. This month is a reminder to ombudsmen to advocate for nutritious meals, stimulating mental and physical activities, and the continued involvement of residents’ loved ones in long-term care settings.